Dear Colleagues and Friends,

On behalf of the CSCVS administration and the Organising Committee, we take great pleasure in inviting you to the 5th Congress of the Czech Society for Cardiovascular Surgery, which will also include the 16th Hejhal Day conference. After an interval of four years the Congress is again being held in Brno, in the Voroněž Hotel, from November 4 to 6, 2012.

For the first time this year the Congress will start on Sunday (November 4), with an informal get-together in the evening. The Congress will also host satellite company-sponsored symposia and several workshops. Two awards for the best presentations by surgeons no older than 35 will be made.

The ten-year history of cooperation between cardiac and vascular surgeons in one scientific society, with a joint congress for both specialties every second year, brings with it great responsibility. We are committed to maintaining the high standards that have been established over the years for both the scientific sessions and the social gatherings. The scientific programme of the Congress will include honorary guest lectures by leading foreign specialists in cardiac and vascular surgery. We are looking forward to meeting other international participants as well as our Slovak colleagues, who traditionally make outstanding contributions to our professional discussions and are a great asset for our social activities.

The scientific programme will have four components, with sessions devoted to cardiac surgery, vascular surgery, posters, and nurses and technicians. The cardiac surgery section will be open to presentations on cardiology; the vascular surgery section will welcome papers on angiology and endovascular techniques. Medical companies will be present during the Congress with stands on the hotel premises. The Congress will also include the General Meeting of the Czech Society for Cardiovascular Surgery. The Congress will be integrated into the continuing education systems of the Czech Medical Chamber and the Czech Association of Nurses, with attendance acknowledged by an appropriate number of credits.

We wish to extend our cordial invitation, in addition to cardiac and vascular surgeons, to specialists in cardiology, radiology and angiology as well as to other specialists whose cooperation is indispensable for the best-informed diagnosis and treatment of cardiovascular diseases. Our closest co-workers – anaesthesiologists, intensive-care specialists, clinical perfusionists, and nurses and technicians – are also warmly invited.

We look forward to meeting you all in Brno, confident that participation in the Congress will serve as an inspiration for your further work and that the conference sessions and social events will allow you to meet old friends and make new ones and further cooperation within the Society.
